About Breezes

According to the website for Breezes Resort and Spa Panama, it is "not just the first Super-Inclusive resort in Central America, it's also the first Breezes Resort ever to grace the shoreline of the Pacific Ocean. Breezes Panama sits on a spectacular stretch of sand of Santa Clara in a region known as 'The Dry Arc' for its comfortably dry climate, all year round. With mountains on one side, and the Pacific Ocean on the other, Breezes Panama is an adventurer's dream comes true. From eco-tours and hiking, to windsurfing, you'll find it all, at Breezes Panama. For the less adventurous, there's a spa, and of course, an array of restaurants and bars."
